

Nottingham City LEA presents England's first conference dedicated to celebrating and exploring the every-growing world of the computer game in education.

E-GAMES

Gamemakers, thinkers and players.....will all be present.

NOTTINGHAM 2005

Panel discussion involving BIG names

Tim Dumbleton (Becta)
Keri Facer (Nesta Futurelab)
Mark Strachan (ESC)

Andrew Burn, author of 'From the Tempest to Tomb Raider'
Karle Royle – Wolverhampton. Univ 'DoomEd'
Tim Rylands (Becta in Practise Award Winner)
Judy Robertson, Glasgow Caledonian Univ-'Adventure Author'
Christina Preston (Miranda.net)

WORKSHOPS

Jacob Habgood (Nottm. Univ) and Jenny Habgood – game making workshops.
FREE software / lesson resources for making games with pupils.

Nottingham e-Games team – how to run your own OCN accredited league – FREE resources for Nottingham teachers

Pupils workshop 'Skills needed for a job in the Games Industry' Toby Barnes, Em-Media

AND

Young Enterprise company 'E-Games Revolution' running a league involving 64 pupils

AND

Tim Rylands with his award winning presentation

AND

Software demos from top class firms – Immersive Education/Caspian/

FREE LUNCH + GOODY BAG (goody bag-pupils only)

Where: Broadway Cinema, Nottingham

When: Friday, 24th June, 2005-05-13

What: Games in Education Conference plus e-Games league

Registration forms from: www.egamesonline.co.uk or jenny.murray@lea.nottinghamcity.gov.uk